

I'm looking for a trusted business partner

I would like to work with you, helping us both become successful, earning an extra and residual income by working together remotely in flexi time

In 20 years we've grown a great business of independent distributors in mainland Europe. Through direct sales and networking, the team of all ages has acquired 1.5 million happy customers, billing over 5 million services. I'd like to duplicate this success with you.

Our next target market is the UK.

Are you a visionary, who can learn new skills and become a pioneering team builder?

We are looking for hardworking hungry people who want FUN making money

You are acquiring customers through referral and introduce other team members to do the same.

No hard sell telesales or Internet; go directly to the business customers that are referred or introduced socially via colleagues, friends, family, anyone you know, simply people talking to people.

Over 25 energy suppliers
Major water utility and telecom suppliers

Recession proof business; we all know people who want to make money and businesses that want to save money on utility services used every day.

Serviced based, no stock required, nothing technical, corporate back office support, free product and marketing skills training to give you the confidence to speak to customers

Excellent marketing plan that rewards and incentivises everyone based on performance.

How does this social networking business work?

Currently we offer best value commercial gas, electric, water and telecoms contracts. We work directly with over 25 well known energy suppliers, and more recently the latest partnerships in the deregulated water market.

Our telecoms partner is the UK's leader in fast data fiber broadband and telephone services

The services we offer are continually expanding.

Strictly no selling

You simply acquire all the copies of a customer's commercial utility bills, submitting them online to the company.

The company do the rest.

After the customer contracts are locked in, the company pays you every month a fixed percentage of the total referral commission received.

Each year, subject to the contract renewing, the following years referral commission is again paid monthly to you for the life of the contract.
